

RELIGIOUS STUDIES (REL)

REL 2601 Introduction to World Religions 3 s.h.

A survey of the major world religions exploring their distinctive features and common threads. A study of their founders, systems of thought, symbols, and sacred literatures.

Gen Ed: Arts and Humanities, Arts and Humanities 2024, International Perspect 2024, Social and Pers Awareness 2024.

REL 4871 Senior Capstone Project 3 s.h.

Research and writing of a paper, or other committee approved project, on a topic in religious studies, under the supervision of a full-time faculty member and in consultation with a committee of at least two other members of the department.

Prereq.: Religious Studies major with senior standing and completion of at least 21 s.h. of REL courses.

Gen Ed: Capstone 2024.